

BL5313 Food Security and Sustainability (4 MCs)

Water and food shortages are expected under climate change with potential detrimental impacts to Singapore through its reliance of food imports from other countries. This new module trains students on approaches to understand and forecast future food crises and solutions to strengthen the food resilience of countries.